XLIII. CONGRESS_Second Session. Washington, February 1, 1875.

SENATE. A very large number of petitions were presented against the restoration of the duty on tea and coffee ; against the renewal of any internal taxation; and for the repeal of the law of 1872 relieving certain foreign pro- thirds in the affirmative. So the motion was ducts of ten per cent. duty. Referred to the Committee on Finance. Mr. PRATT, of Indiana, presented joint resolutions of the Indiana Legislature in fayor of granting pensions to surviving sol- motion. diers of the Mexican war. Ordered to be printed and lie on the table. Mr. PRATT the committee, but no conclusion had been the reading of the journal to-morrow reached. He sent to the clerk's desk and changes or amendments to the rules, and had read a letter from the Commissioner of providing that during the consideration of Pensions in reply to an inquiry addressed to such report no dilatory motion whatever (Pratt), in which the Commissioner states that the estimated number of survivors of one hour after the report shall be made. the Mexican war is 35,604, and the estimated number of widows of soldiers who served in that war 12,600.

Mr. MOETON, of Indiana, presented a memorial sigged by the officers of the Women's National Christian Temperance Union and r jected-yeas, 173; nays, 89-not two-thirds one hundred thousand other persons against the manufacture, importation, or sale of alcoholic liquors as a beverage in the District of Columbia. Referred to the Committee on

Mr. Norwoop, of Georgia, presented resolutions of the Legislature of that State condemning Federal interference in Louisiana. Ordered to be printed and lie on the table. Mr. Scorr, of Pennsylvania, from the Committee on Claims, reported back several memorials for compensation for quartermasters' stores taken by the army during the late war, and the committee was discharged from future consideration of the same. He said these claims could have been filed under the statue before the commissioners of claims before the time expired. As a bill was now pending before Congress to extend the time for filing claims of this character the Committee on Claims had decided to take no action on such claims until the policy of Congress on extending the time should be The Senate then resumed the consideration of the resolution of Mr. Schurz instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire what legislation is necessary by Congress to se-cure to the people of Louisiana the right of self-government under the Constitution. Mr. West, of Louisiana, and Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, spoke, and Mr. SARGENT, of California, has the floor to-morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The first resolution offered in the House was one, by Mr. HALE, of Maine, to amend the rules by the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, Whenever a question is pending before the House the Speaker shall not entertain any motions of a dilatory character except one motion to adjourn and one motion to fix the day to which the House shall adjourn; but the previous question on the engrossment and third reading of a bill or joint resolution shall not be ordered during the first day of its consideration unless threefourths of the members present shall second the demand: Provided, That this rule shall not apply to a House resolution offered in the morning hour of Monday : And provided further, That it shall not apply to any proposition to appropriate the money, the credit, or other property of the United States, except the regular appropriation bills.

Mr. RANDALL, of Pennsylvania, made a point of order; which, after discussion, was overruled, and the resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules. Mr. CESSNA, of Pennsylvania, also offered resolutions to change the rules, providing in addition to a rule substantially the same as the one offered by Mr. Hale that the Judiciary Committee may report bills of a public character on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and that the House may by a majority vote dispense with future reading of the journal after its reading shall have occupied thirty minutes. A point of order was also made upon it by Mr. Randall, which was discussed and overruled, and the resolution was referred to the Committee on Bules. An appeal from the decision of the Chair was taken by Messrs. RANDALL and BECK.

The appeal was presented in written form as follows: "The undersigned take an appeal from the decision of the Chair made this day, which permits the reading of House resolutions intended for reference to the Committee on Rules to the exclusion of the business first provided for to be proceeded with in Rule 130. [Signed] "SAMUEL J. RANDALL,

" JAMES B. BECK." Mr. GARFIELD objected to the presentation of such a paper, setting out what the SPEAK-ER's decision was,

The Speaker remarked that the appeal was presented in an unusual way. He had not decided that such resolutions should be received to the exclusion of the business first provided for. Mr. RANDALL: That is what I say in my appeal. The SPEAKER: But neither the gentleman from Pennsylvania nor the gentleman from Kentucky (Mr. Beck) has a right to say so. The matter should go before the House regularly. The paper presented is wholly un-

After some further colloquy the SPEAKER stated that he had reduced to writing his decision, which was that a resolution to amend the rules may be read and referred to the Committee on Rules during the first call of States in the morning hour of Monday, and that that constitutes notice according to the usage of the House, and from that decision the gentleman from Pennsylvania had arpealed.

Mr. RANDALL's statement of appeal having been handed back to him, he stated that he had not withdrawn it, and was informed by the SPEAKER that there was no necessity for withdrawing it, as the Chair had not received it.

An attempt at further discussion was defeated by loud calls for the regular order. Mr. Kasson, of Iowa, moved to lay Mr. RANDALL's appeal on the table. Agreed toyeas, 175; nays, 84-a strict party vote. Mr. CESSNA's resolution was then referred to the Committee on Rules.

Mr. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, moved to suspend the rules so as to allow the Committee on Rules to report at the present time for consideration, amendment, and action any new rules or changes of rules, and providing that during the consideration and discussion of such report and amendments thereto the Speaker shall entertain no dilatory motion whatever, and that discussion on the rules and amendments thereto shall not exceed one hour.

There was great excitement as the vote progressed and particularly when it became known that the necessary two-thirds had not been obtained-it lacking four of that number when the roll-call was finished. Messengers were sent to committee-rooms to look for absent members and every effort made on the part of the majority to secure the necessary two-thirds after the reading of the names; but before the announcement of the vote Mr. WILLIAMS, of Wisconsin, rose and voted "yea"; whereupon Mr. RANDALL asked the Speaker whether the gentleman (Williams) was in the hall during the roll-call, as required by the rules. The SPEAKER intimated to Mr. RANDALL that he was not justifled in suggesting that any member would offer to vote if not entitled to do so.

Mr. RANDALL replied that he meant no imputation on any one, and would not allow Treasury—gold, $60,500,000; currency, the Spraker to endeavor to make it appear as $10,250,000.

The SPEAKER said he could not regard it

Mr. WILLIAMS said he did not regard Mr. RANDALL as capable of putting an imputation on his veracity. He had not voted at first because when his name was called he was in conversation with a gentleman. Mr. RANDALL replied that the gentleman is dead, in any particular.... Mr. WILLIAMS: Does the gentleman cast a suspicion on me now that I was not within the ball during the roll-call? Mr. RANDALL: I do not; and I will not llow the gentleman to reflect on me, either. Mr. WILLIAMS: Then, why did you put be question? Mr. BANDALL: Because I wanted it dis-finctly understood. After Mr. WILLIAMS had voted "aye, Mr. Pelban, of Alabama, also voted "aye," and Mr. McNulta, of Illinois, was ready to vote the same way, but stated that he was in the corridor, not in the ball, during the rollcall. The vote was then announced as follows: Yeas, 170; nays, 86-less than tworejected. The only exception to the vote being a strict party one was that Mr. SENER, of Virginia, a Republican, voted "no." His vote the other way would have carried the

Mr. BUTLER, of Massachusetts, moved to suspend the rules so as to authorize the Comsaid that this matter had been discussed by mittee on Rules to report immediately after him by the chairman of the committee shall be entertained by the Speaker, and that all debate thereon shall cease within Mr. Eldredge, of Wisconsin, moved an adjournment; which was rejected by yeas and pays. The vote was then taken on Mr. Butler's in the offirmative.

Mr. Sener, of Virginia, was the only Republican who voted in the negative. Mr. GARPIELD, of Ohio, then moved to take a recess till 10 o'clock to-morrow morn-that inasmuch as the majority could do what less Camden or Walker is out of the field. Mr. Eldredge, of Wisconsin, suggested it liked the recess be till to-morrow at 12 The joint ballot of the Legislature indicates o'clock, and that all to-morrow's session be considered as that of Monday's, so that the majority might do all the mischief it chose.

Mr. GARFIELD's motion was adoptedtook a recess till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, when Monday's session will be resumed. During the session of the House to-day Mr. Hawley, of Connecticut, moved to susernment property at Fortress Monroe, Va. Agreed to.

Senator Windom, of Minnesota, who for the past two years has been the A Youthful Mail-Robber Arrestedchairman of the Select Committee on Transportation Routes to the Seaboard, was appointed chairman of the caucus committee, and to-day in its behalf reported to the caucus which was specially convened to deterlution, which were with almost entire unanamity adopted and authorized to be made ratified:

ests of the country: therefore, Resolved, That in addition to the usual and necessary appropriations made in the river and harbor bill for works already under charge of the Government, the Missouri river included, the Committee on Commerce be instructed to insert in said bill such sums as in their judgment-having due regard to the recommendations of the chief of engineers and the commission appointed to report upon the mouth of the Mississippi river-can be judiciously and economically expended during the next fiscal year upon the improvements above indicated, looking to their speedy completion and the wants of Friday night, are missing. Two bottics of our rapidly-increasing internal commerce.

The Railroad Question before the Senate Committee.

Washington, February 1.—The Senate Railroad Committee had a long and rather excited session this morning, and adjourned without action. The proceedings that have transpired give no plausible indication of the result, though the through line from ocean to ocean seems to have the most friends, the argument being that feeders will come of their own accord. There are many connecting schemes which prevent present and which may defeat final action. It is either Tom Scott, pure and simple, or nothing.

Louisiana. PROPOSITIONS LOOKING TO COMPROMISE. NEW YORK, February 1 .- The Times's New Orleans special says the eongressional committee is endeavoring to effect a compromise. It involves the seating of the five members of the Legislature expelled by bayonets, the election of a Speaker other than Mr. Wiltz. the recognition of the Kellogg government, and harmonious action with the Radicals of the Senate. McEnery and Penn will not be parties to the compromise.

Another proposition was the recognition of Kellogg as Governor and Penn as Lieutenant-Governor. The leading members of both parties are sanguine of some sort of compromise.

Weather Report.

Washington, February 1.- In the South Atlantic States, stationary barometer and temperature, southeast winds, and partly cloudy or clear weather.

For the Gulf States, southerly winds, falling barometer, stationary or higher temperature, cloudy weather, and possibly rain. For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, failing barometer, southeast to southwest winds, rising temperature, cloudy and possibly rainy weather. For New England and the Middle States, rising followed by falling barometer, southwest to easterly winds, stationary or higher temperature, and clear followed by cloudy

from Michigan should not reflect upon him | The Senatorial Contest in West Vir-[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

CHARLESTON, WEST VIRGINIA, February 1.-The interest in the senatorial fight is daily becoming intense. The excitement stretched to its utmost tension to-night in the caucus. It came very near snapping into a new departure of some kind. Walker has been gradually gaining strength, but as the days go by the feeling grows stronger. I may safely say that he is fighting single-handed against the whole legion of rivals. There is an almost unparalleled obstinacy manifested in some of the candidates, who have never received more than half a dozen votes, and are clinging like grim death to their slim chances.

Thirty-one ballots have been taken in caucus and four in joint session. There is now no indication as to whose brow shall wear the senatorial laurel. The rest of the session may be spent in balloting, for the end is as hard to see as it was ten days ago. No startling combinations have been made, but as the bill for the removal of the capital comes up to-morrow some developments may be made. It is Camden's district that asks for the State-House. It may be two weeks before a senator is chosen.

To-night was the thirtieth ballot: Walker, 23; Camden, 15; Price, 10; Brannan, 16; motion, and amid renewed excitement it was D. G. Camden, 3; Caperton, 1; S. A. Miller, 1. Thirty-first ballot: Walker, 20; Cam den, 16; Price, 8; Brannan, 16; G. D. Camden. 6; scattering, 3. In comparing this ballot with those of last week it may be said that Brannon has gained, but he will not be the lucky man unnothing, nor will it until the caucus takes conclusive action.

An attempt was made in caucus toyeas, 167; nays, 89; and the House at 6 P. M. night to pass a resolution to adjourn sine die, which was equivalent to allowing the whole matter to be decided in joint assembly, where the seventeen Republicans hold pend the rules and pass the bill authorizing the balance of power. It was overwhelmthe enlargement of the Hygeia Hotel on Gov- ingly lost. There is a fear that unless a choice is soon made the Democracy will be demoralized.

The people are impatient, and clamoring that so much time is lost in a senseless struggle. If Walker or Camden are not chosen it will be an ingratitude of party that has selappointed to report what action should be dom occurred in any State. All the old fogy
